Current Job Openings

The Committee discussed the hiring freeze and potential layoffs this fiscal year which will be especially severe for the public schools. Caryn Malloy explained that do to there being no current police academies the Town is in the process of hiring two candidates from the reemployment list, one of whom is a minority candidate. Additionally the town will be seeking to fill vacancies through lateral transfers from other civil service police departments.

Current Bid Projects

Cary Malloy informed the Committee that the Stratton School, Building B. of the Town Yard, and the Rink have renovation projects being prepared to go out to bid that will exceed $200,000.

School Diversity Task Group

Barbara Boltz reported on the minority coffee held in October which was attended by about nine people. The group is scheduled to meet next on February 4, 2010. The next social event is scheduled for February 10, 2010 at the community room of the Robbins Library.
